REGISTRATION OF ESTABLISHMENTS

3. Registration of establishment and application for registration -

Within thirty days from the date of enforcement of these rules in the case of an establishment existing on that day and within thirty days from the date of commencement of the business in the case of a new establishment the employer of every establishment shall apply for registration under the Act to the Chief Inspector or the officer authorized by him in this behalf in Form 'A' prescribed for the purpose in duplicate and in print together with the original copy of the treasury challan depositing the requisite amount of fees as specified in Schedule-I

Provided that the State Government may, in relaxation of the provision of this rule, allow the employer of a particular establishment, if satisfied with the reasons furnished by him, to get his establishment registered or the registration of his establishment renewed on or before a date specified in the order issued in this behalf.

4. Register of shops and establishments -

The Chief Inspector or the officer authorized by him in this behalf shall maintain a Register of Shops and Establishments in Form 'B' which shall consist of three Parts as follows :

Part I Shops

Part II Commercial Establishments.

Part III Establishment for Public Entertainment or Amusement

5. Issue of Certificate of Registration -

On receipt of the application in the prescribed Form 'A' and the original copy of the treasury challan depositing the fees, the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement made in the application, register the establishment in the appropriate part of the Register of Shops and Establishments and shall, in the Form 'C' issue Certificate of Registration to the employer :

Provided that a certificate of Registration shall be valid upto a period of twelve months only from the date of issue unless renewed thereafter.

6. Display of notices and certificate of registration.

- (1) Any notice or certificate required to be exhibited under the Act or the rules shall be exhibited in such a manner that it is readily seen and can be read at ease by any person whom it concerns and shall be replaced by a fresh one whenever it becomes defaced or ceases to be legible.
- (2) Every employer in an establishment shall display the Certificate of Registration or the Renewed Certificate of Registration, as the case may be, issued under rule 5 in a conspicuous place in the establishment.

7. Renewal of certificate of registration. -

An application for the renewal of a Certificate of Registration shall be submitted in the prescribed Form 'A' within three months after the date of expiry of the Certificate of Registration, as the case may be and shall be accompanied by the current Certificate of Registration together with the original receipt of depositing such fees as are prescribed in Schedule I and the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the statement, issue the renewed Certificate of Registration in the prescribed Form 'C' after making relevant entries in the appropriate part of the Register of Shops and Establishment.

8. Notice of change in Establishments.

- (1) It shall be the duty of every employer in an establishment to notify to the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf, in the prescribed Form 'D' together with the original receipt of depositing the requisite fees, for any change in respect of any particulars contained in the statement submitted under sub-rule (1) of rule 3 within two months after the change has taken place.
- (2) The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf on receiving the prescribed notice of change together with the original receipt of depositing the required fees shall, on being satisfied about the correctness of the change of particulars, make the required change in the Register of Shops and Establishments, in accordance with such notice and shall amend the current Certificate of Registration or issue a fresh Certificate of Registration, if necessary.

9. Notice of winding-up of establishments. -

- (1) The employer shall, within ten days of the winding-up of the business of his establishment notify to the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf in the prescribed Form 'E' accompanied by the Certificate of Registration. The Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf, on receiving the information of the closure of the establishment and on being satisfied about its correctness, remove the name of such establishment from the Register of Shops and Establishments and cancel the Certificate of Registration:
- (2) Provided that if the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf does not receive any written information about the winding-up of the business of an establishment, but he is otherwise satisfied that the establishment has been wound-up, he may remove the name of such establishment from the Register of Shops and Establishments and cancel the Certificate of Registration.

Explanation. - Every case where an establishment is closed for a continuous period of three months or more shall be treated for the purpose of this rule as a case of winding-up of the business of that establishment.

10. Loss of Certificate of Registration. -

If any Certificate of Registration issued under rule 5 or a renewed Certificate of Registration issued under rule 7 is lost, destroyed or defaced the employer shall forthwith report the matter and make an application in the prescribed Form 'F' accompanied by the original receipt depositing the required fees specified in Schedule I and the Chief Inspector or the Officer authorized by him in this behalf shall issue a duplicate copy of the Certificate of Registration duly stamped with the words 'DUPLICATE' in red ink.

11. Non-transferability of Certificate of Registration. -

Ordinarily Casual Leave of absence shall not be admissible for more than five days at a time and previous permission in writing of the employer shall be obtained before such leave is availed of.

24. Medical leave.-
Grant or extension of medical leave on grounds of sickness incurred or accident sustained, if dues shall not be refused when prayed for in writing by or on behalf of an employee supported by a certificate from a registered medical practitioner.
Provided that the employer may, if he so thinks fit and undertakes or defrays the cost involved, require the employee by an order in writing to be examined by the nearest Health Officer under the State Government, and if the employee refuses to submit to such examination or is certified on such examination he/she is certified to be fit for duty, the employer may refuse the leave or extension thereof as the case may be.
25. Combination of medical leave with privilege leave.-
Leave on medical certificate allowed under Rule 24 above may be combined with privilege leave due under the Act.
26. Prohibition of alteration of nature of leave.-
The employer shall not alter the nature of leave applied for by the employee.
27. Intimation of employee's address on leave.-
Every employee praying for privilege or medical leave shall intimate to the employer his address during the period of leave and if there is any change of the address so communicated, that shall be intimated within three days of such change.
28. Extension of leave.-
If an employee after proceeding on leave desires an extension thereof, he shall apply in writing to the employer, and the latter shall send a written reply either granting or refusing the extension of leave to the applicant at the address last given by him.
29. Unauthorized absence.
- (1) If an employee remains absent without leave or beyond the period of leave originally granted or subsequently extended, the employer shall, before taking any disciplinary action against the absentee employee issue a notice requiring him to explain in writing the reasons of his absence within fifteen days of the receipt of the notice.
 - (2) If on receipt of the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above, the absentee employee explains the reasons of his absence to the satisfaction of the employer, the latter may regularize the period of unauthorized absence by grant of such leave as may be due to the employee and treat the remaining period of absence, if any, as leave of absence without wages; and where the explanation given by the employee is considered not satisfactory, the employer may either treat the period of unauthorized absence of the employee as absence without wages even though leave with wages may be due to him or terminate his lien on service, depending on the seriousness and gravity of the case.
 - (3) If the employee does not submit any explanation to the employer within the time limit given in the notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above, the latter may terminate the lien of the person employed on his service.
 - (4) The notice referred to in sub-rule (1) above shall be served by registered post to the address given under Rule 27 or in its absence, to the address last given by the persons employed.

CHAPTER-VI PRESCRIBED AUTHORITY AND NOTICE OF DISMISSALS

30. Continuous employment for six months.-
An employee shall be deemed to have completed a period of six months continuous service within the meaning of sub-section (2) of Section 18 of the Act, notwithstanding any interruption in service during those six months brought about (a) by sickness accident or authorized leave (including authorized holidays and weekly holidays) not exceeding forty-five days in the aggregate, or (b) by a lock out, or (c) by a strike which is not an illegal strike or (d) by intermittent periods of involuntary unemployment not exceeding fifteen days in the aggregate, and authorized leave shall be deemed not to include any weekly holiday allowed under this Act, which occurs, at the beginning or end of interruption brought about by the leave.
31. Time within which appeal can be submitted.
- (1) An employee, whose service has been dispensed with for an alleged contravention of the provisions of sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Act may, within thirty days of the date of termination of service, make an appeal to the appellate authority.
 - (2) The appellate authority may, however, entertain an appeal after the expiry of the aforesaid period of thirty days if he is satisfied that the appellant had sufficient cause for not preferring the appeal within such period.
32. Procedure for hearing of appeal.
- (1) The appellate authority, on receipt of the memorandum of appeal and on being satisfied that there is a prima facie case showing alleged contravention, shall fix a date for the hearing of the appeal by giving due notice in Form 'L' to the appellant and in Form 'M' to the employer, whose order is appealed against to appear in person or by a duly authorized agent and shall, after giving both the parties fair and full opportunity of being heard and making such further enquiry as he may deem fit, dispose of the appeal in the manner required under the provisions of the Act as expeditiously as possible.

- (2) The decision or the order of the Appellate Authority shall be recorded in Form 'N' and it shall be carried out by the employer concerned within the period specified by the appellate authority.

33. Recovery of sums of money under section 18.-

When any sum of money is due from an employer under sub-section (4) or (6) of section 18, and the amount has not been paid by the employer within such period as may be fixed by the appellate authority in his order, the latter shall issue a certificate to the Collector who shall recover it as arrears of land revenue with utmost expedition.

34. Issue of appointment letters to employees.-

Every employer in an establishment shall furnish every employee with a letter of appointment with a copy to the Chief Inspector to his official Address, by a registered post, with acknowledgment due and to the Inspector of the area in which the establishment is situated and it shall be effective from the actual date of employment in Form 'O' in the case of every person who is :-

- (i) already in the employ of the establishment within thirty days from the date on which these rules come into force, and
- (ii) employed in the establishment after these rules come into force and before the person so employed commences work,

Provided that it shall not be necessary for an employer to issue such letter of appointment to an employee who is already in the employ and has already been furnished with a letter of appointment in any other form substantially containing the particulars specified in the Form.

36. Employee's liability to give prior notice :

An employee in an establishment who has put in three months' service shall have to give fifteen days' notice in writing before quitting his job and in default, the employee may forfeit to the maximum his seven days' unpaid wages.
